SYRAH/CARIGNAN 2014

from "Abbaye Sainte Eugenie" Corbieres, Languedoc, France

This ancient abbey and its vineyard were restored and enlarged by its owners Thibaut and Christine Cazalet since 1998, both young oenologists. Thibaut is the farmer and cultivates and keep 26 hectares of old vine stocks while Christine works at the cellar.

Sainte Eugenie wines have character, as their winemakers and their soils: they associate human knowing and traditional cultivating methods.

GRAPES:

10% Shyrax

90% Carignan (70 to 100 years old)

ALCOHOL: 13°

SOIL: _Clay and Limestone, hillsides

CLIMATE: Temperate Mediterranean. North-East exposition.

WINE MAKING

- Manual harvest.
- Traditional maceration at controlled temperature (25-28 ° C) for 15 days.
- Ageing of 4 months in stain steel tanks.
- Early bottled to preserve the wine freshness and fruitiness.

TASTING NOTES

Deep red, purple reflection. Intense nose of red fruits, smoky, powerful mouth, round flavors of liquorice. Serve chilled at 15°C on tapas, grilled meats or fish.
