SAUVIGNON BLANC 2014

from les “Vignerons d’Alignan du vent” Côtes de Thongue, Languedoc, France

Thanks to the efforts of a group of like-minded wine growers, this area of Languedoc has developed it’s own unique identity. A temperate mediterranean climate helped by a cooling north wind allows the presence of a balance & an elegance sometimes lacking in the south of France.

GRAPES: 100% Sauvignon Blanc

ALCOHOL: 12.5°

SOIL: Marl, Low Terrasses

CLIMATE: Temperate Mediterranean. South West exposition.

WINE MAKING

- Parcel Selection
- Harvest by night or early morning (3am to 10am)
- Complete destemming
- Cold pre-fermentation maceration.
- Cold Débourbage for 48 hours
- Low temperature fermentation (15° à 17° C)
- Bottled directly after filtering
- Ageing on fine lees over 3 months

TASTING NOTES

A well-balanced palate with floral elements. Light mineral flavors with grapefruit, lemon and exotic fruits notes.

A fresh and grassy Sauvignon Blanc that pairs well with seafood and white meat.
